

bringing materials to life

Maintaining the Health, Safety & Quality of Life of Our Stakeholders

G O Morris – V P H&S A&C Division
25th November 2009

Who Are Our Stakeholders?

Our Workforce

- Safe Environment
- Cared For – Health Agenda
- Pride In What They Do & How They Do It
- Recognised For Their Contribution
- Well Trained & Educated
- Shared Value & Mind Set

Local Communities - Expectations

- Good Employer – Safe Operation
- Acceptable Level of Impact
- Responsible to Community Concern
- ZERO HARM – Health Impact

- No Adverse Disturbance
  - Working Hours
  - Transport
- Sustainability – Credentials / Guarantees

Customer End User

- Product Impact
- Health & Safety Priority Value – Expected
- Environmental Footprint / Credentials
- Supply Chain – Carbon Footprint

Shareholders - Investors

- Ethical Relationship
- Good Employer
- Return on Investment
- Responsible Operator
- Long Term

Government - Regulator

- Compliance with Regulation
- Consultation on Application
- Shared Vision – Harm Free Workplace
- Technical In Orientation
- How Our People Behave is Our Responsibility

Suppliers – An Active Partnership

- Listen To The End Users' Concerns
- Joint Effort To Reduce Risk
- Provide Solutions

Cross Industry Stakeholder Initiatives

- Designing in Safety (Mobile Equipment Safety Features)
- Safequarry.com, information & learning website
- Publications & Literature
- Industry Award Schemes encouraging best practices
- Cement Sustainability Initiative (CSI)
  - H&S Data Collection Criteria
  - Contractor Safety Standards
  - Driving Safety Initiatives
- Atlantic Alliance Conferences

Closing Summary

- All Stakeholders interests must be taken into account
- How we address their interests is critical
- Responsive, Open & Communicative
- Solution & Improvement Focused